Most Teenagers in Angeles suburbia know the "all dressed up and no place to go" pangs — attendant to the inadequate recreational facilities in the outlying residential areas in which they live.

The normal youthful craving for excitement in these areas has blown many a fuse and safety valve under the pent-up pressures of modern day life where social lethargy, evidenced by the lack of organized and protected social activities, is an unfortunate fact.

Delinquency, understandably on the increase under these circumstances, will not improve during the school year without some week-end study relief for these young people who have just weathered another long, frustrating summer.

One, Mrs. Linette Campbell, housewife and mother, took up the challenge and has offered a fascinating solution to some of the parents oppressed by this problem.

Obtaining a hall at 1930 Pacific Coast Hwy., Mrs. Campbell converted it into a meeting place for young people, ages 15 through 20.

Located in Lomita, between Narbonne and Western Avenues, "TEEN-SCENE," something new and exciting in entertainment centers, is now open every Friday and Saturday night from 8 to 12 p.m.

The nominal admission charge of $1.25 opens the door to four fun-packed hours of music, entertainment and dancing. Soft drinks and snacks are available at the Snack Bar.

Presently featured, are the British-American Rock and Roll Band "THE TRAVELERS." Rhythm Guitarist Don Landis, one of the original "Challengers" along with Richard Delvy and Glenn Gray, heads the new group, SUMMER'S NOT OVER YET . . . Opening of school doesn't interfere with summer games of barefooted Redondo Beach youngsters in the Portofino area of the yacht harbor. Model Donna Becker was posing for pictures along the sea wall when she spotted the children and joined the game.

Special Night

"Mandarin Night" a special one night only affair honoring the traditions of China and its noblest art form—epicurean cuisine has been planned for Monday, Sept. 20 at the Peking Restaurant in Inglewood.

Designed as a gourmet treat in response to encouragement from regular patrons, the evening will be highlighted by a special six course authentic Chinese dinner, entertainment, oriental fashions, and a few other unique touches in keeping with the theme. The tab is set at $4.95 per person. The menu includes: four appetizers, wonton or seaweed soup, Mongolian beef steak, soy bean sauce chicken, mushrooms with bamboo shoots, barbecued pork, fried rice and a house specialty dessert—Peking delight. A special cocktail has been invented for the affair and named the "Emperor's Cup."

Reservations are required for dinner, although the "Emperor's Retreat" lounge will be open from 5 p.m. The Pagoda Band, an all Chinese combo will provide listenable and danceable music until 1 a.m. The Peking, one of Inglewood - near - to - the - airport area's most unique dining spots is located at 234 W. Manchester Blvd. Just four and Hardy, and Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis. Beside their comedy, the duo will present their own six man musical group. The entertainment and the food go hand in hand at the Barbary Coast where Cindy and Johnnie Pappas make many friends and return customers by featuring a complete steak dinner at $3.95. The customers may select his own cut of steak (or rock lobster tail) from a silver platter and then it is broiled to a King's taste.

THE LONG SEARCH
No need traipsing all along the coastline looking for superlative fish and seafood. For a grand selection of ocean-fare, traditionally the mainstay of all Smith Bros. dining operations, is temptingly featured every night at their Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance—formerly the Fish Shanty on the Pacific Coast Highway. Specialties newly-caught in cold crystal streams and lakes, netted in sparkling rivers and deep seas, grace the felicitous menu at luncheon and dinner time.

Fish and shellfish also meriting appreciation includes planked Chinook salmon from the Columbia River, broiled Nootka halibut from Pacific Northwest waters and Alaska king crab legs from the Bering Sea. Two exceptional favorites at Smith Bros. Indian Village are the Icelandic lobster dainties and the fish kebab. Pre-dinner appetizers from the rolling "Pocahontas Cart," a culinary prologue to a perfect meal, provide a true forecast of the seafood delights that follow.

"Thunderbird (Early) Dinners," tabbed at 2.75 wampum and 1.50 wampum for children, are menued daily from 4 to 6:30 p.m. and on Sundays from 11:30 a.m. 'til 4 p.m. Indian Village Restaurant is an adventure in dining for the entire tribe.
